Social Deviant

Timothy Leary

Dr. Leary is presently being held at Orange County Jail (550 N. Flower, Santa Ana, California) pending appeal of a ten-year sentence for bringing marijuana into the United States from Mexico. The trial judge labeled him a dangerous perverter of the nation's youth and denied bail.

Formerly a research psychologist, Leary was fired from Harvard for his early experiments with the potent hallucinogen LSD-25. He later founded a "religion" based on the use of LSD and other dangerous drugs, and came to be characterized as the founder of the "Psychedelic movement."

Until his arrest, Leary was a candidate for the office of Governor of the State of California.

Social Deviant

Pun Plamondon

One of Ten Most Wanted Criminals! (according to J. Edgar Hoover)

Lawrence Robert "Pun" Plamondon is presently being sought by the FBI in connection with the bombing of a Michigan office of the Central Intelligence Agency. He has a long arrest record for possession of marijuana in Illinois, Michigan and New Jersey.

As Minister of Defense of the White Panther Party, Plamondon is a known advocate of drugs, rock and roll music, and copulation in the streets. Plamondon has been known to advocate violent means in order to destroy the existing system. For this reason, he should be considered armed and dangerous.

Third World Revolutionaries.

Nathaniel Junior

Currently in custody awaiting trial on charges of conspiracy, conspiracy to purchase machine guns, conspiracy to commit murder, kidnapping, armed robbery, unlawful use of weapons (two counts) and aggravated battery arising from three incidents during April and June of 1969.

Junior surrendered to authorities after being at large for several months. Prior to the revocation of a previous bond, he had been arrested by a force of 100 policemen, two helicopters and numerous agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Because of Junior's being a clear and present danger to the established order, he is being held on one million dollars bail. A most dangerous outlaw.
