Poetry in Detroit

Fifth Estate Collective

1970

Untitled by Ken Mikolowski

[Original printed as spiral] Is there poetry in Detroit?
There IS Poetry in Detroit!
MICK VRANICH "SALAD" magazine BOOKWORLD.
Wednesday afternoon readings Miles Modern poetry room 5157 Cass 4 pm FREE STEVE TUDOR (cider & donuts come as you are) Dudley Randall and the BROADSIDE PRESS 12651 Old Mill Place.
Is JOHN SINCLAIR in Marquette poetry in Detroit?
Right On!
Poetry in Detroit is ARCHIE ANDERSON & BOB ANDREWS and their magazine "ACTUAL SIZE" Common Ground of the Arts.
FAYE KICKNOSWAY & JON SCHWARTZ and the new Miles Poetry Anthology.
BOB SERLING & DAVE FRASER and one incredible issue of "PLO-JECT." DICK SWEENEY & god bless MRS. SMITH.
HANK MALONE WXYZ-FM.
Poetry in Detroit is WALT HALL in Oregon, DON McCAIG & ANDREI CODRESCU in New York, GEORGE TYSH in Paris, JIM GUSTAFSON wandering in Europe, someone in your own backyard or in Brazil.
KAREN KNORP "OLD SECOND" WSU English Dept.
ESTHER BRONER, DAN HUGHES, SHELDON TANNENBAUM & HARRY STRICKHAUSEN of course.
These names are praise—don't skip even one.
ROBIN EICHELE, BRADLEY JONES DONNA BROOK JOEL DRESSLER (anonymous) DAN BELLINGER ARTHUR LICHTENSTEIN JIM SEMABILL DOKIANOS TOM FITZSIMMONS & the festival of life.
JUDITH GOREN DOUGHTRY LONG DAVE HERRESHOFF JUDY McCOMBS BENJAMIN ALVIN'S FINER DELI PAM SHRIMAN DENNIS MOORE MATTHBLACK'S "OYSTER" CLAUDE JACKSON. a few of your friends & a bottle of RIPPLE.
LARRY PIKE MARY JO OLESZEK A. QUINN SMITH HENRIETTA EPSTEIN JIM KRPPS.

POETRY IN DETROIT

—Ken Mikolowski

FOLLOW(up

ALp stop resist delcay in the upper mouth area soft teeth eat slower steak hard meat in the wet space called wet spazed HAND under stood replay making success with without is doors again call for broiler control by the WLP6 theo-rister controler box put installed the man in the blue suit gas meter screw driver: lack of glucose distilled blood red/white corpusals retain water non sugar ingredients compose the/talk meat body walks for 1 mile stops & waits for de/LIVER to RE/gain bde climate: context ^16 context ^17 Context ^(18-37) order details redline all else re/READ red in order non CONTEXT total structure for form texture: continue of street white article sack yellOW stain 2 night IN/side as usual®: REPLAY 2
BE.....GIN ( ) begin at front gate g//////////////ATE/gate of HERE:

Michael Vrasich

To Marvin Bell

Perhaps if I said, I don't like Iowa, it would interest you. No one gets born there because of the freeway.
It isn't so in Nebraska, except it's like riding a yoyo string in and out of Mother. In Iowa, all you see is her pubic hair but you have to twist your head up to see it above the embankment. And when you eat at a truck stop, you can't be sure what you're eating.

Faye Kicknosway

three (after Diane di Prima & Doug Fetherling

I can imagine you riding a horse so fast, trying to lose what living in a city has given you but,

when you get back at night, don't give me that look unless you have an uncut diamond under your tongue & want me to find it.

David Fraser

language
I will remember you by yr eyes while my tongue moves deep within yr mouth across yr teeth
& hard against yr tongue like a language a language
spoken in a voice that is the sleep of whores the words forgotten after the act betrayed like a pile of flesh lying in the corner of some room some humid room or like our clothes small animals of this hot lying in piles while we fuck language sanctioned and functional as functional as the hot wet flesh of a shoulder wound that accepts the bullet the way my mouth accepts yr breast language sanctioned by my open mouth resting against yr hand my breath committed to the hand like flares and the stain of yr blood committed to the bedsheet like a burning city

Robert Sorling

JAP's at THE WALL with the mad manifestos & other non-negotiable demamds.
FREE broadsides every month from THE ALTERNATIVE PRESS. insane articles in the "FIFTH ESTATE" that try to put the Detroit Seen on paper. your MOTHER writes Poetry in Detroit POETRY IN DETROIT IS DETROIT POETRY IS

FOLLOW/up

ALp stop moist de/cay in the upper mouth area soft teeth eat slower steak hand meat in the wet space called wet spaced HAND:under stood replay making success with without in doors again call for broiler control by the WLP-6 theo-meter controler box put installed the man in the blue suit gas meter screw
driver:lack of glucose distilled
blood red/white corpusals retain
water non sugar ingredients compose the bulk meat body walks for 1 mile stops & waits for de/LIVER to RE/gain bile climate:context:"16 context "17 Context "(18–37) omitt details redline all else re/READ red
in order non CONTEXT total structure
for form texture:continue of street white ankle suck yellOW stain 2 night
IN/side as usual@':REPLAY 2
BE GIN ( ) begin at front gate
g/////////////ATE/gate of HERE:
—Michael Vranich

To Marvin Bell

Perhaps if I said, I don't like Iowa, it would interest you. No one gets born there because of the freeway.
It isn't so in Nebraska, except it's like riding a yoyo string
in and out of Mother. In Iowa, all you see is her pubic hair but you have to twist your head up to see it above the embankment. And when you eat at a truck stop, you can't be sure what you're eating.
—Faye Kicknosway

[untitled]

three (after Diane di Prima & Doug Featherling)
i can imagine you riding a horse so
fast, trying to lose what living in a city
has given you but,
.
when you get back at night, don't
give me that look unless
you have an uncut diamond under your tongue & want me to find it.
—David Fraser

[untitled]

language
i will remember you by yr eyes
while my tongue moves deep within yr mouth
across yr teeth
& hard against yr tongue like a language
a language
spoken in a voice that is the sleep of whores
the words forgotten after the act
betrayed like a pile of flesh
lying in the corner of some room
some humid room
or like our clothes small animals of this line lying in piles while we fuck
language sanctioned and
functional as functional as
the hot wet flesh of a shoulder wound
that accepts the bullet
the way my mouth accepts yr breast
language sanctioned
by my open mouth resting against yr hand
my breath
committed to the hand like flame
and the stain of yr blood
committed to the bedsheet like a burning city —Robert Serling

fifth estate

Fifth Estate Collective
Poetry in Detroit
1970 https://www.fifthestate.org/archive/107-june-11-24-1970/poetry-in-detroit Fifth Estate #107, June 11–24, 1970 fifthestate.anarchistlibraries.net