

Bomb Talks

Fifth Estate Collective

1967

The effects of U.S. bombing on Vietnamese civilians will be the subject of a talk given by William F. Pepper, Sat., March 18, at 8 p.m., at St. Joseph's Episcopal Church, Woodward at Holbrook.

Mr. Pepper is the author of the recent article in RAMPARTS magazine on the same subject. He recently visited Vietnam and was accredited by the Military Assistance Command. His main concern was the effects of the war on women and children and he visited many hospitals, orphanages, and shelters. He is the executive director of the New Rochelle Commission of Human Rights and an instructor at Mercy College in Dobbs Ferry, N.Y.

His talk is sponsored by Citizens for Peace in Vietnam. Admission at the door is $1; 50 cents for students. For further information call TO8-8686.

Related

See Fifth Estate's Vietnam Resource Page.

Fifth Estate Collective
Bomb Talks
1967

<https://www.fifthestate.org/archive/25-march-1-15-1967/bomb-talks>
Fifth Estate #25, March 1-15, 1967

fifthestate.anarchistlibraries.net