

Pitt People Freed

Fifth Estate Collective

1967

The Fifth Estate's Pittsburgh correspondent, Frederick I (Hohenstaufen) reports that the narcotics raid that hit that city 10 February [see "Pitt Pot Bust," FE #25, March 1-15, 1967] has had a happy conclusion.

All 55 persons arrested have had the charges against them dropped including those against Frank Goldsmith who had been charged with "possession of a dangerous drug." The "drug" being 5 prescription cold tablets.
