

Briefs

Fifth Estate Collective

1967

Poet Snodgrass Reads at WSU

W.D. Snodgrass, professor of English at Wayne State University and a Pulitzer Prize winning poet, will be the third poet in the "Dialogues on the Art of Poetry" series at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 4, in the Community Arts Auditorium on the WSU campus.

Snodgrass's volume of poems, "Heart's Needle," won both the Pulitzer Prize and the $1,000 award in poetry of the Ingram Merrill Foundation.

Oakland Peace Group Meets

Paul Winter, WTAK radio personality, will be Guest Speaker at a "Program on the Vietnam War" at the North Minster Presbyterian Church, Big Beaver near Adams in Troy Michigan. The meeting on April 13 will be held at 8:30 p.m. and is co-sponsored by the Oakland County Peace Committee and the Social Justice Committee of the Birmingham Unitarian Church.

Fifth Estate Collective
Briefs
1967

<https://www.fifthestate.org/archive/27-april-1-15-1967/briefs>
Fifth Estate #27, April 1-15, 1967

fifthestate.anarchistlibraries.net