Fifth Estate Faces Being Gobbled Up By The Money Monster

Fifth Estate Collective

1976

Once again the old Fifth Estate is faced with the nemesis of financial bankruptcy. Our shoestring budget still continues to operate at a rate where production costs inevitably outweigh income generated by the paper, due to our refusal to accept all forms of commercial advertising.

In an effort to maintain the paper and our independence from commercial advertising, we urge our readers to contribute financially to the continuing operations of the paper, to re-subscribe if your sub is running out, to check out Ammunition Bookstore and the catalogue in this issue for reading material, and to pass the word and the paper along to friends everywhere. We at this end will assuredly continue to look for ways to keep the paper going.

1 Year Subscription $3.00

1 Year Sub + Prisoner's Sub $5.00

I Donate $... to the Fifth Estate

I Pledge $... monthly to help the Fifth Estate.

FE Note: As in 1976, we still need subscribers! If you are reading this online, you can subscribe at <http://www.fifthestate.org/buy-subscribe-donate/subscribe/>
