DEAR DAD—Happy Birthday. Hope you and Mom enjoyed the sunshine while it lasted. Miss you both very much. Have a lovely birthday. P & M

SUSAN & JOHN—Happy New House. Keep on painting! Watch for the Mailman and keep the water boiling. Love, P & M

RICK—Happy Birthday from Pat, Marilyn and Peter. Miss you and love you. Please write and tell us all before the ground opens up and swallows you forever! Ascaso sends mice.

HELP wanted to compile "The Ten Best Censored Stories of 1976." If you have, or know of, a story that should have but didn't make front page headlines and the network TV news, please write: Project Censored, Dept. of Sociology, Sonoma State College, Rohnert Park CA 94928, by March 1st.

Sisters: Her Shelf, Wimmin's Books & Crafts needs your support. Volunteer a few hours a week. Call 869-4045 Wednesdays through Fridays 2-7pm or Sundays 12-5pm.

A NEW network of anarchist feminists has been formed by merging two existing networks. The newsletters have also been merged and is now called the "Anarchist Feminist Notes."

The network is an opportunity for women to communicate with relatively little effort. We hope to share our experiences, our ideas, to give feedback to each:other and to provide as much mutual support as possible. We encourage anarchist feminist women to participate in the newsletter.

Responsibility for publishing the "Notes" rotates with each quarterly issue. Tiamat, an anarchist-feminist study and support group, is publishing the next issue. The deadline for sending articles and letters is Feb. 29. Women who want to receive the "Notes" should write to: Tiamat, c/o 609 N. Tioga St., Ithaca NY 14850. Volunteers to do the following issue should also write Tiamat.

If possible, send your contributions to the newsletter typed, single spaced with a 38 space line, elite. The news letter is supported financially by donations from members.
