NOTES

The second issue of the English anarchist/anarcha-feminist monthly, "Zero," has arrived at our office, but only about five are left after being scooped up by staff and friends, so it may be difficult to get them through us. Their address is Zero, Rising Free, 182 Upper St., Islington, London N1, England.

No. 23 of the "North Country Anvil" is out and features 52 pages of libertarian ruralism with everything from "Barns of Wisconsin" to anti-nuke news. $1.25 to Box 37, Millville MN 55957.

"The Hapotoc Rebel" continues its "explorations into the realm of sexual politics" and dedicates its issue to "Rebel Womankind." Their address is, The Hapotoc Family International, Box 10638, Amsterdam, Holland.

"Here and After," a libertarian socialist publication has published their second edition featuring articles on ecology and revolution, Portugal, and the crisis in Britain. $.50 to Here and After,
