We have quite a few anarchist, libertarian and ultra-leftist periodicals that were sent from South America, Asia and Europe over the last couple of years. If anyone would like some to read, just tell us what language you know (other than english) and we'll send some along free. If you're not making a book order, but would still like some foreign publications, just send us $.30 to cover mailing costs.

Below is a list of publications that have come to our attention, but are not available through Ammunition at this time.

THE HIGHLAND CLEARANCES; John Prebble. The incredible history of how the Clan Chiefs and the clan societal structure both worked against the Highlanders to push them off their land and replace them with sheep. A good account of the expansion of capitalism and the violent destruction of the Highland peoples in Scotland during the 18th & 19th centuries. Penguin Books, 41 Steelcase Road West, Markham, Ontario—Canada ($2.95).

THE DEATH SHIP; B. Traven. Collier Books, 866 Third Avenue, N.Y., N.Y. 10022

KAFKA: The Complete Short Stories; Franz Kafka. Schoken Books, 200 Madison Avenue, N.Y., N.Y. 10016 ($5.95—paperback).

THE COMMUNARDS OF PARIS, 1871: Documents of Revolution; Ed. by Stewart Edwards. Documents published by the Communards and newspaper articles that were produced during the revolution of 1871. Also includes a brief historical sketch. Cornell Univ. Press, 124 Roberts Place, Ithaca, New York 14850 ($2.45).

UN CONFLIT DECISIF: Les Organisations Syndicales combattent la Revolte contre le Travail; John Zerzan. Echanges, c/o 34 rue St. Sebastien, 75011 Paris, France.

The latest issue of ZERO: Anarchist/Anarcha-feminist Monthly (No. 3, Nov. '77) is out and available by writing: Zero/Rising Free, 182 Upper Street, London N.1, England ($.40 plus postage). This issue contains articles on the anti-nuclear fight in Europe, National Front & Police, the Paedophile Information Exchange, Feminism and the Italian left, Gays and more.

If some people were thinking of purchasing DURRUTI: The People Armed by Abel Paz from us, you might want to reconsider. Ever since the FIFTH ESTATE printed the Joe Doakes' letter criticising the book and BLACK ROSE BOOKS (the publishers) BRB refuses to sell us any! We've written them (and asked comrades in Montreal to contact BRB) about the books several times now, and they (BRB) refuse to even acknowledge our attempts (even when we got fed-up and asked them to send just enough to cover back orders). If you want the book, it's best to write BRB directly, or you can get the hardback version from FREE LIFE EDITIONS (41 Union Sq. West, N.Y., N.Y. 10003). The hardback version is very expensive; about $12.50.
