Paul Krassner, editor of the Realist and Society Editor of Ramparts magazine, will speak on Friday, May 12 at Wayne State University.

Krassner describes himself as the "court jester of the new left." His talks usually range from soft core humor to hard core reality. His latest Realist features excerpts from the Manchester book on Kennedy, relating how, during the flight from Dallas, Johnson humped the wound in Kennedy's neck.

Admission will be free and the public is invited to hear Paul Krassner at 8:00 p.m. in Lower DeRoy Auditorium.
