A NOTE FROM CIENFUEGOS PRESS

It seems that the comrades at Cienfuegos Press have been having some difficulties with the post office, and some of their material is taking a long time to reach its destination. They've asked us to put a note in this issue to tell all of their subscribers in North America, Europe, Australia, New Zealand, etc., that the latest issue of the Cienfuegos Review has been sent out to them and should be arriving soon (hopefully).

We received our first shipment of the Review about one week ago and already they're gone. We had alot of outstanding orders for it, and if you haven't got yours yet, hang on! There is another shipment coming.

If anyone would like to order the Review (No.3), you can get it from us for $4.00 per copy.

We have had recent news that Bratach Dubh will soon publish three more pamphlets on the subjects of Italy and the British Angry Brigade. We'll keep you informed.

We've just received a new book on the Spanish anarchist movement from 1911 to 1937. It is published by the Institute For The Study Of Human Issues and sells for about $7.00 paperback and $20.00 hardback. We haven't read it yet, but it looks like a good book (we'll have more about it in the next issue). For more information on the book, you can write: ISHI, PO Box 2367, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19103 USA.

Since we won't have another issue before the upcoming religious holiday of Easter, we thought you might like this appropriate limerick:

There was a young lady named Alice

Who peed in a Catholic chalice.

She said, "I do this

From a great need to piss,

And not from sectarian malice.”
