The Spring Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, the group that brought over 400,000 persons to New York City and San Francisco on April 15, has called for a national conference to evaluate the Mobilization and to exchange ideas on future programs and actions.

The conference, to be held in Washington, D.C., is scheduled for the weekend of May 20-21, following the confrontation with President Johnson by representatives of the peace movement. All groups and individuals who oppose the war are invited to attend.

The conference will begin on Saturday, May 20, with registration from 8:30 a. m. to 10 a. m. at The Hawthorne School, 501 "I" Street, S. W., Washington, D.C. For further information, contact the Spring Mobilization, 857 Broadway, Rm. 307, N.Y., NY 10003, phone (212) 675-4605.
