

Help the oldest anarchist 'zine in America stay young!

Fifth Estate Collective

2003

The FE HQ in rural Tennessee seeks volunteers and interns for extended visits of one to three months.

Help maintain our Bistro. Participate in every aspect of magazine production. Learn new skills and meet interesting people. Live in a rural intentional community.

Applicants must be willing to live rustically, pay for own expenses, and share basic chores. Please submit letter of introduction with writing samples and activist references.

This experience may be available for college credit.

Dept. of Homeland Security employees need not apply.
