

Red Flag Sold

Fifth Estate Collective

1967

The Draft Resistance sold its Red Flag, but didn't make one hell of a big profit. $5 to be exact. Maybe people thought it was contaminated by its previous owner.

Incidentally, there was a bad typo in the article offering the flag for sale (FE #37, 1-15, 1967). The story read "the left join the right in stamping that dirty visionist (sic) flag." The word should have been revisionist. Big deal.
