1969

“The streets of our country are in turmoil. The universities are full of students rebelling and rioting. Communists are seeking to destroy our country. Russia is threatening us with her might and the republic is in danger.

“Yes, danger from within and from without. We need law and order. Without law and order our nation cannot survive.

“Elect us and we shall restore law and order. We will be respected by the nations of the world for law and order. Without law and order, our republic will fall.”

A. NIXON, 1968

B. HUMPHREY, 1968

C. WALLACE, 1968

D. HITLER, 1932

ANSWER: You guessed it—it was old Adolph baby. Still, it does have a familiar ring to it, doesn't it?
